

2024 New York State Family History Conference

Call for Presentation Proposals

The NYG&B welcomes proposals for its 2024 New York State Family History Conference, “Connect at the Crossroads.” The event will feature in-person presentations and live broadcasts, September 20–21, 2024, from the historic Erie Canal Museum in Syracuse, New York, and on-demand sessions available to all conference registrants through November 1, 2024.

The NYG&B is specifically seeking topics related to:

- New York records and repositories
- Methodology
- Migration and settlement
- Immigration and immigrant communities
- New Yorkers of color and others whose stories have been historically underrepresented
- DNA and genealogy
- Military service
- New York biographies

Examples in presentations should use connections to New York whenever possible.

Presentations should be 50 minutes, plus 10 minutes for questions, and can include various formats. Panel discussions and similar formats will also be considered for in-person presentations.

Speakers selected to provide on-demand presentations will receive a full conference registration and a $250 honorarium (per presentation, subject to meeting applicable deadlines). In addition to on-demand presentations, a limited number of proposals will be selected for in-person delivery, September 20–21, 2024, in Syracuse, New York. Speakers selected to present in person will receive a full conference registration, $250 honorarium (per presentation, subject to meeting applicable deadlines), and reasonable travel expenses.

Speakers are encouraged to submit up to five proposals. If you have any questions, please email education@nygbs.org.

Proposals can be submitted online at: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/NYSFHC24>

Deadline for submissions: March 15, 2024
